Ying Handler: Traum / Mix Media, 50 x 50 cm, 2024

The artwork represents a dream of the artist. The centre of the painting, which is painted in blue and green, represents the sky and nature. It shows two figures ascending into the sky. The surroundings of the picture are characterised by buildings, mountains and green landscapes. In this dream, Ying Handler experiences what life is like as an immigrant in a new country and a new culture. Aspects such as newness, curiosity, fear and rootlessness are thematised. The floating movements of the figures and the deconstructed buildings in the work reflect the surrealistic feeling of the dream.
